PPRC PRESS RELEASE 25th August 2025

Pursuant to its Constitutional and Statutory Mandate, the Political Parties Regulation Commission (PPRC) hereby informs the membership of the National Grand Coalition (NGC) Party and the general Public that it is in receipt of the Resolutions of the National Delegate Conference of the NGC dated 15th December, 2024.

Resolution 2 of the said Conference expelled Mr. Jesmed Sumah, Wilfred Alimamy Wyse, Alimamy Juma Tarawallie, Mohamed Alpha Jallon, and Foday Mohamed Kebe as members of the party for anti-party activities.

Resolution 6 of the same Conference filled in the vacant positions of those party members expelled.

Please also be informed that by letter dated 25th August, 2025, signed by the National Secretary General of the NGC Party, Alhaji Amadu Sheriff, a complaint was made against Mr. Jesmed Foday Mami Sumah for misrepresenting the NGC Party.

In lieu of the above, the Commission wishes to inform the membership of NGC Party and the general public that it is aware of a matter before the Courts touching and concerning the decision of the NGC's National Delegates Conference aforementioned.

The Commission, therefore, directs Mr. Jesmed Foday Mami Sumah to refrain from holding himself out as the Chairman and Leader of the NGC Party until the Court decides otherwise.

Finally, it is also important to inform the membership of the NGC Party and the General Public that Mr. Mohamed Koroma is he whom the Commission knows and recognises as the current Chairman and Leader of the National Grand Coalition Party.

END OF NOTICE!!!
