PPRC NEWSBRIEF 010414

The Deputy Executive Representative of the Secretary-General and Head of Political and Peace Consolidation Section of the United Nations Integrated Peacebuilding Office in Sierra Leone Berhanemeskel Nega on Tuesday says Sierra Leone is a role model to the United Nations and the world at large.

Speaking to the Chairman of the Political Parties Registration Commission (PPRC), Honourable Justice M.E. Tolla Thompson, Mr Nega says the achievement of peace and the consolidation of peace in Sierra Leone is a success not only for the United Nations but for the people of Sierra Leone. He says he is grateful for the work done by democratic institutions as the UN spent less time in ensuring that peace returns to Sierra Leone. He commended the work done by the current administration and expressed optimism that they will continue to do more. He praised the PPRC for its work done over the years and assured the Commission of the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) and the UN Country Teams support toward the work of the Commission. He expressed hope to one day return to Sierra Leone as a tourist with this family.

In his statement, the Chairman of PPRC, Honourable Justice Thompson says the Commission is aware of the Contribution of the UN and Mr. Nega. He expressed optimism that Mr. Nega will continue to watch the progress of Sierra Leone and the Commission wherever he goes.

Honourable Justice Thompson expressed the Commissions thanks and appreciation for all that has been done by the UN in Sierra Leone.
