PPRC News Brief 16th October 2014

The Political Parties Registration Commission and one National Executive Officer each from the ten registered political parties in Sierra Leone (APPA) will on Friday 17th October 2014 commence a three days sensitization exercise in Moyamba, Bo, Kenema, Kailahun, Kono, Bombali and Port Loko district.

The overall objective of the exercise is to inform the Regional/District Executive members on the approved PPRC/Political Parties Ebola Intervention project and their role in the entire process.

The PPRC/ Political Parties Ebola Intervention Project will be implemented by the Political Party Executive (APPA) in the seven districts and the Western Urban and Rural Areas.

During the three days exercise, both teams will:

- Educate their membership about the PPRC/Political Parties Ebola Intervention Project &
- Set up APPA structures for the implementation of the project

The North/East Team which will cover Kono, Bombali and Port Loko will be led by the All Peoples Congress (APC) will include representatives from the National Democratic Alliance (NDA), Peace and Liberation Party (PLP), Peoples Democratic Party (PDP) and the United National People's Party (UNPP).

The South/ East which will cover Moyamba, Bo, Kenema and Kailahun will be led by the Sierra Leone Peoples Party (SLPP) and will include representatives from the Revolutionary United Front Party (RUF), Peoples Movement for Democratic Change (PMDC), United Democratic Movement (UDM) and the Citizens Democratic Party (CDP).

Both teams will be supervised by a staff of the PPRC.
