APC/SLPP Members after the meeting

Mohamed Jawara Kamara of the All Peoples Congress (APC) and Alhaji Aruna Mansaray of the Sierra Leone Peoples Party (SLPP) both contesting the Parliamentary By-Election in Constituency 100 on Thursday 3rd April 2014 assured the Chairman of the Political Parties Registration Commission Honourable Justice M.E. Tolla Thompson that they will conduct their activities within the confines of the law.

In a joint meeting with both parties, the two candidates and a cross section of both parties Constituency Executive assured the Chairman and the Commission that they will ensure Political Tolerance, non-violence and adherence to laws governing their conduct in the Parliamentary By-Election scheduled for 31st May 2014.

In his statement, the Chairman of the PPRC Honourable Justice M.E. Tolla Thompson says the meeting is part of the Commission's activities ahead of the by-election. He says as a Commission it is its duty to ensure that Political Parties and their supporters abide by the rules governing elections and politics in Sierra Leone.

Hon Justice Thompson reminded both candidates and their executive of the provisions in the 1991 Constitution of Sierra Leone, the Political Parties Act 2002 and all other laws. He expressed optimism that both sides will conduct themselves well before, during and after the by-election.
