PPRC News Brief 27th June 2016

Ahead of the 9th July, 2016 Parliamentary Bye-Elections in Constituency 050 in Lunsar, Port Loko District, the Political Parties Registration Commission (PPRC) on Friday 24th June 2016 admonished candidates and supporters of the Alliance Democratic Party (ADP), All Peoples Congress (APC) and the Sierra Leone Peoples Party on the rules and regulations governing the conduct of elections campaign.

After hours of deliberations, the following resolutions were agreed upon by the contests (i.e Mr. Mohamed Kamarainba Mansaray- ADP, Mr. Osman Karankay Conteh-APC and Mr. Alusine Bundu-SLPP):

- That Political Parties should avoid personal and verbal attacks on Radio, TV and during their campaigns
- That Political Parties should stick to their campaign dates
- That Political Party members and supporters should refrain from the pulling down or tearing of campaign materials
- That Political Parties should refrain from holding party activities on campaign dates
- That Political Parties must abide by the Code of Conduct for Political Parties
- That Political Parties should cooperate with the Sierra Leone Police in the ongoing investigations
- That Political Parties should refrain from chanting provocative songs during their campaigns

All three candidates have signed a Memorandum Of Understanding (MOU) that has been distributed to key stakeholders in the electoral process and security agencies.
