PPRC PRESS RELEASE

16th FEBRUARY, 2018: The Eminent Persons Group (EPG) on 16th February 2018 paid courtesy calls to the National Electoral Commission (NEC), Office of National Security (ONS) and the Sierra Leone Police (SLP). This visit was to officially present the EPG members and to share their mandate ahead of the March 7 2018 elections.

Members of the EPG will be engaged in high level dialogue and mediation with the leadership of political parties and their respective Presidential Candidates. The EPG will also undertake preventive diplomacy actions and mediation on behalf of the PPRC.

The Chief Electoral Commissioner Alhaji Nfa Alie Conteh promised to work with the EPG at all times as necessary. He stated that NEC through PPRC will invite members of the EPG to discuss contentious issues as we approach the 2018 elections.
