PPRC NEWS BRIEF 12TH SEPTEMBER 2023

The Political Parties Regulation Commission (PPRC) over the weekend completed its annual staff retreat that brought together the Chairman, Commissioners, Management and staff at Galliness Paradise Hotel in Bo City. The three days retreat focused on the successes and challenges of the Commission during the last five years but more specifically before, during and after the June 2023 general elections in Sierra Leone.

An inward look into the performance of the Commission in tandem with the Strategic Plan 2019-2023 revealed that the Commission was able to achieve 78.5% of what was in the plan.

During the retreat, reports were submitted by the Executive Secretary, Deputy Directors in the five regions and the six directorates on their stewardship during the years under review. The retreat was also used to introduce two consultants of whom one will be engaged in the development of a new strategic plan while the other will engage in the assessment of the institution.

The retreat was climaxed by a social evening.
