PPRC PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Freetown Friday 19th July, 2024: Pursuant to its Constitutional and Statutory mandate, the Political Parties Regulation Commission (PPRC), notes with concern a video published on social media by one Kadiru Kai Kai threatening the Security of the state that if he is not elected President of Sierra Leone in 2028, he will wage war. Such a statement is unacceptable and has no place in our democracy.

This is a total violation of section 39 (1) d of the Political Parties Act No. 25 of 2022 which states that "A Political Party including its members, supporters, candidates, and operatives shall not be involved in the use of incendiary and inciting statements including hate speech against a political party of its opponent".

While the Commission commends the Leadership of the Sierra Leone Peoples Party (SLPP) for its swift response in condemning such, the Commission is now calling on the Office of National Security and the Sierra Leone Police to investigate this individual and take necessary steps as provided by law.

In conclusion, the Commission admonishes all registered political parties in Sierra Leone to continue with their normal business within the confines of the laws of Sierra Leone.
