PPRC NEWS BRIEF 15th January, 2025

The former Chairman of the Political Parties Regulation Commission (PPRC), Hon. Justice Abdullai Masiyambay Bangurah, on Tuesday 14th January 2025 officially presented his handing over notes to the newly appointed Chairman of the Commission Emmanuel Koivaya Amara Esq. at the Commission's Headquarters on Tower Hill in Freetown.

Speaking at a short ceremony attended by the Chief Electoral Commissioner of the National Electoral Commission for Sierra Leone (ECSL), Mr. Mohamed Kenewui Konneh, who doubles as a Commissioner of the PPRC, Hon Justice Bangurah, while congratulating and welcoming Lawyer Amara to the PPRC, informed the meeting that he has no doubt in his competence.

He said he believes that the new Chairman's composure will enable him to surmount the challenges of regulating political parties in Sierra Leone.

He informed the new Chairman about the reviewed Act, which now gives the Commission additional powers to regulate political parties.

In his statement, the Chief Electoral Commissioner, Mr. Konneh, while congratulating the new chairman, assured him of his continued support towards the work of the PPRC. He informed him of the rigours in his new job but believes he will surmount all of those.
